journey. Mr. James W. Coburn, at one time a resident of this city, where he wrote in the Clerk's office, but for many years a resident of Western Missouri, where he is a prominent lawyer, passed through the city last week on his return home. He had been visiting friends in the county for some ten days.

The great Bean case in Texas is again looming up. This time a Mrs. Marmaduke of St. Louis is asserting a claim to it, who says that Bean was her father. It will be remembered that parties in this city were asserting a claim to this fortune some years ago. Our correspondent heard when he was in Texas a short time about all there was to be had of it.

PATRIOTIC UTTERANCES

At last the Mayor and the Sheriff at Frankfort, having proven recreant to the trust imposed on them, the Governor of the state, in the exercise of his power as its Chief Executive, says The Louisville Post, issues orders which not even the Sheriff can misunderstand, and which, if obeyed, will give us for two days of the session a Legislature free from organized

If the Sheriff will follow the orders of the Governor members need not fear Jack Chinn's knife nor Jim Williams's pistol, but may act in accordance with the wishes of their constituents.

The Governor deserves the support of all law-abiding citizens.

The condition of affairs at Frankfort has long been a disgrace to the whole state, and Senator Blackburn need not expect them to be forgotten or forgiven, as were the methods used in his contest for the Senatorship against Senator Wil-

In the pending case the outrages against law and order have been too flagrant.

ADJOURNS PERPETUALLY

The curtain has at last fallen on the most disgraceful scenes ever witnessed at Kentucky's Capital.

May it never rise to display another performance of the same sort!

The final scene was enacted at noon Tuesday, when Lieutenant-Governor Worthington, President of the Joint Session, ordered the vote taken for United States Senator.

Not a man in the Senate answered.

The same was true of the House, except Burnham and Garrett, who voted for Boyle, when Lieutenant Governor Worthington announced that only two votes had been cast.

Representative Howard, Republican, moved the Joint Assembly adjourn finally. Representative Si Brown, Republican, moved to adjourn perpetually and for-

Mr. W. Hall Strode, son of Dr. J. T Strode formerly of this city, has recently been honored by fellew colleagues at the Lexington Business College in being elected Prosecuting Attorney of their Moot Court, which has become an enterprise of great interest in college circles.

The Court convenes on every Saturday, and the legal battles that are fought be fore it are worthy the talents of an ex perienced attorney.

Mr. Strode has a gift in oratory and logical discrimination which portend for him a brilliant future when he shall have shied his castor in the legal arena.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the sountry than all other diseases put together. and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it in curable. Science has proven Cararrh to be a constitution al disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F.J Cheney & Co., Toledo Ohic, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimocials. Address.
